

LOOKING OVER KHIO

09. JANÚAR 2005 - 16:13

This is where we will work in the future when new premises for the department of design has been built.

It is an old factory for sailmaking, next to the Akerselva river in Oslo. I am sure there will be great premises for students, staff and the public. It will be interesting to meet the architect Einar Hagem on Monday 10th January to hear about their ideas.
